

Hello

We're Franklyfluent

We're on the hunt for an intern to join our team for 3 months.
This is a paid position.

A London-based creative translation agency with a love for languages, we work with brands to adapt their advertising and marketing campaigns for international markets.

Who's it for:

Language geeks

Advertising & marketing lovers

What you'll do:

We're a small-and-thriving agency, which means you'll be involved in all of the day-to-day — from live briefs to marketing, new business and social.

- ✕ You'll learn more about how we handle clients, manage creative teams and write strategic briefs for copywriting, transcreation and advertising campaigns.
- ✕ You'll help build relationships with our wide and diverse network of creatives from all over the world.

- ✗ You'll dissect what makes great creative tick, then help brief and direct our teams to rebuild it in new languages for different cultures.
- ✗ We're London-based, splitting our time between the office & remote work.

To apply:

Proficiency in a second language (any language) is essential, as well as a keen eye for detail and strong organisational skills. The right to work in the UK will be needed for this UK-based role.

If you tick all those boxes, we'd love to hear a bit about you and why you think this role is the right fit. Please also share a short presentation in PDF format of a marketing/advertising campaign that you think would prove challenging to translate, along with your CV, to hireme@franklyfluent.com.
